

ISI TELEMAGEMENT SOLUTIONS, INC.
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT INDEMNITY

All capitalized terms not defined in this document shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the NACR Sales Agreement.

Definitions:

DEALER PRODUCTS. ISI Telemagement Solutions, Inc.'s products comprised of hardware ("Equipment") and software programs ("Programs") (Equipment and Programs being hereinafter collectively referred to as "Products"); and ISI Telemagement's Solutions, Inc. services ("Services," along with Products, being hereinafter collectively called "DEALER PRODUCTS").

Products. Infortel Select Desktop and Infortel Select Enterprise

Services. Infortel Select Advantage

Infringement Indemnity. NACR will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Customer and Customer's owners, officers, directors, and employees (individually and collectively, an "Indemnified Party"), at NACR's expense, from any third party claim, action, suit, or proceeding against an Indemnified Party (a "Claim") to the extent that such Claim is based upon an allegation that a DEALER PRODUCT infringes any right protected by any patent, copyright, trademark, or trade secret of any third party that is enforceable in North America. NACR will indemnify an Indemnified Party for any judgments, settlements, reasonable costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees resulting from a Claim. NACR's obligations under this Section are conditioned upon the following: (i) upon becoming aware of the Claim, an Indemnified Party provides to NACR prompt written notice of the Claim; (ii) an Indemnified Party gives to NACR sole authority and control of the defense and/or settlement of the Claim; and (iii) an Indemnified Party provides all reasonable information and assistance requested by NACR to handle the defense and/or settlement of the Claim. An Indemnified Party, at its expense, may hire legal counsel of its choice to participate in an advisory capacity in discussions, negotiations, or proceedings of the Claim.

Remedial Measures. If a DEALER PRODUCT becomes the subject of a Claim, or if NACR reasonably believes that use of such DEALER PRODUCT may become the subject of a Claim, then NACR may do, at its own expense and option, at least one of the following: (i) procure for Customer the right to continue use of the DEALER PRODUCT at no additional cost to Customer for such right; (ii) replace the DEALER PRODUCT with a non-infringing DEALER PRODUCT while maintaining the DEALER PRODUCT'S essential specifications; (iii) modify the DEALER PRODUCT so that it becomes non-infringing while maintaining the DEALER PRODUCT's essential specifications; (iv) refund to Customer a pro-rated portion of the applicable Price and license fees paid to NACR for the DEALER PRODUCT and, where applicable, the fees paid to NACR for Services, based upon a linear monthly depreciation over a five (5)-year useful life, in which case Customer will both cease all use of the DEALER PRODUCT and return the DEALER PRODUCT to NACR; or (v) take other corrective action that it deems appropriate, with the consent of Customer, provided that such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Exceptions. NACR will have no defense or indemnity obligation for any Claim based upon (i) a DEALER PRODUCT that has been modified by someone other than NACR or an authorized NACR agent, if such modification results in the allegation of the infringement; (ii) a DEALER PRODUCT that has been modified by NACR in accordance with either Customer-provided or end user-provided specifications or instructions, if such modification results in the allegation of the infringement; (iii) use or combination of a DEALER PRODUCT with Third Party Products, if such use or combination results in the infringement; or (iv) Customer products, end user products, or Third Party Products. The term “Third Party Products” means any products manufactured by a party other than NACR, and may include, without limitation, products ordered by Customer from third parties pursuant to NACR’s recommendations. However, Third Party Products do not include components of DEALER PRODUCTS that both (a) are not recognizable as stand-alone items; and (b) are not identified as separate items on NACR’s price list, quotes, orders, or documentation.

No other Remedies Regarding Infringements. THE FOREGOING STATES NACR’S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND CUSTOMER’S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES WITH RESPECT TO ANY INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY THIRD PARTY.
